CHECK OUT THE FULL VIDEO TOUR

This home has plenty to offer with flexible and versatile living throughout. The current vendors have added a few of their touches but there is opportunity to add plenty more with a new home owner.

You will enter through the porch into the dining room, which has been finished with wooden floor throughout. This room is very light, which is great to grab a coffee and look over the sunny front view.

To the right is the spacious living room, fitted with a log burner and leading on to a conservatory, which makes it a great entertaining space for all.

There is a kitchen at the rear with views over the garden and not one, but two utility rooms.

Upstairs there are four double bedrooms, the main bedroom is to the front with the en-suite shower room but the current owners prefer to use the back double bedroom as it has stunning views over the fields. There is another double to the front of the house and up to the left wing of the house is the smallest double, again with views over the fields behind but also a potential good office space.

Outside - the sunny well stocked rear garden has two handy sheds and did we mention the stunning open views?

There is side access to the house and also a side door to the garage. Garage - Is accessed via a white up and over door it has various electric sockets, electric metre for the solar panels, storage area, light and power.

A home truly not to be missed!

Please note - at the time of filming, there were sheep in the field so we apologise for any barring.
